

<http://www.suicidology.org/> lots of good advice and resources

1-800-273-TALK (1-800-273-8255) The National Suicide Prevention Lifeline is a 24-hour, toll-free suicide prevention service available to anyone in suicidal crisis.

<http://www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org/>

<http://www.oregon.gov/DHS/ph/ipe/ysp/slinks.shtml> Exhaustive set of resources on the topic

http://www.sprc.org/about_sprc/index.asp Suicide prevention resource center

<http://www.jointcommission.org/PatientSafety/NationalPatientSafetyGoals>

www.teenscreen.org Columbia University TeenScreen

afsp and sprc list this national mental health and suicide screening program as a “promising evidence-based program.”